About Us

Franklands Foods have decades of experience as a manufacturer, importer and a wholesaler in the coconut related industry, we have been working with multinationals and small to medium businesses since 1994. Our Australian operations opened in 2015. We are progressively expanding our product range and, aim to be one of the leading ingredient suppliers in the country.

We have established our presence significantly in Australia over the years. Based in Melbourne, Victoria, we are one of the leading coconut and natural products suppliers in Australia.

We have 3 production facilities in Sri Lanka. Each facility is dedicated for coconut cream/milk, desiccated coconut and coconut oil. Our UHT production facility in Sri Lanka is dedicated for coconut cream and milk, it is a BRC A grade certified facility and has the capacity to produce UHT coconut cream and milk in 20kg bags, 200kg drums and 1000kg IBC tanks.

Our Retail Brand "Hello Pure" is known for distinct quality, single origin, organically produced coconuts, superfoods, spices and a wide variety of organic products.

Our company continues to operate based on the principles of producing high quality ingredients at competitive prices.

Partnering with us will benefit you from our expertise, reliability, product diversity, high quality products, internationally accredited quality processes and distribution networks.
